—with a store service perfected to the finest point of excellence

Just as a touch of color here and there in a beautiful painting is needed to make the picture complete, so is the spirit of co-operation needed to make a store service complete, especially during a busy holiday season.

We want our friends to feel that it's a pleasure to shop here and that zest is given to selection, not only by the great variety in the Christmas stocks but by the wide awake and sincere interest taken by our employes to make satisfaction with their selection all that they anticipated—and more.
